If all these Cupids now were blind (Version b)

BEN JONSON

ALFONSO FERRABOSCO II (c. 1575-1628)

TREBLE

(Suggested realization of ornament signs)

[BASS]

If all these Cupids now were blind

As is their wanton brother;

Or play should put it in their mind To shoot at one another;

What pretty battle they would make

If
they their objects should mis-

they their objects should mis-

And each one wound, and each one wound, and each one wound

And each one wound, and each one wound

his mother!

his mother!

his mother.

his mother.
If all these Cupids now were blind (Version b)

ALFONSO FERRABOSCO II (c. 1575-1628)

If all these Cupids now were blind As is their wanton brother; Or play should put it in their mind To

ton brother; Or play should put it in their mind To shoot at one another; What pretty battle they would make If shoot at one another; What pretty battle they would make If ye their objects should mistake, And each one eye their objects should mistake, And each one

wound, and each one wound his mother!

wound, and each one wound his mother!
his mother.

his mother.
BEN JONSON

If all these Cupids now were blind (Version b)

ALFONSO FERRABOSCO II (c. 1575-1628)

6

13

18

Editorial realization of ornament sign: