How near to good is what is fair!

BEN JONSON

ALFONSO FERRABOSCO II (c. 1575-1628)

Which we no sooner see, But with the lines and outward air Our senses taken be. We wish it still to see, and prove What ways we may, what ways we may deserve. We court, we praise, we more than love, We are not griev'd to serve, we are not griev'd to serve.
How near to good is what is fair!

Which we no sooner see, But with the lines and outward air Our senses taken be. We wish it still to see, and prove What ways we may, what ways we may deserve. We court, we praise, more than love, We are not griev'd to serve, we are not griev'd to serve.
How near to good is what is fair!

[Music notation]