

M.9.1(a)

I was not wearier where I lay
 (Version a: diplomatic transcription)

BEN JONSON

?NICHOLAS LANIER (1588-1666)

[CANTUS]  I was not wearier where I lay By

 frozen Titan's side to night,

 Than I am willing now to stay And

 be a part of your delight.

 But I am urged by the day, A gainst my will, to bid you come away, come away.

[CANTUS]

BEN JONSON

I was not wearier where I lay

NICHOLAS LANIER (1588-1666)

(Version a: diplomatic transcription)

I was notwearier where I lay By

frozen Titan's side to night,

Than I am willing now to stay And

be a part of your delight.

But I am urged by the day, A gainst my will, to bid you come away, come away.