

If I freely may discover (Setting 1)

BEN JONSON

ANON.

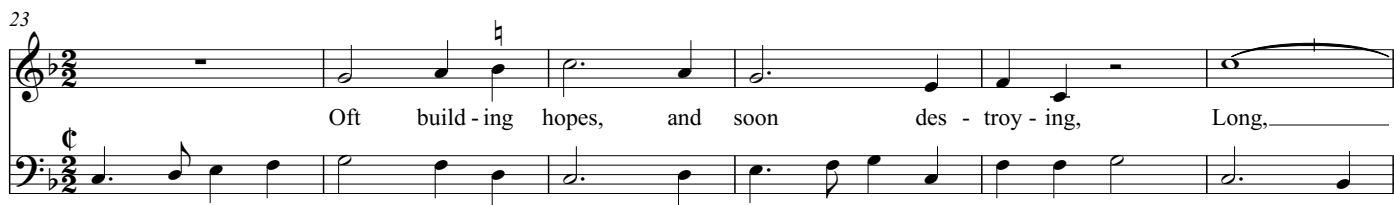

[CANTUS]  If I free - ly may dis -

[BASS]

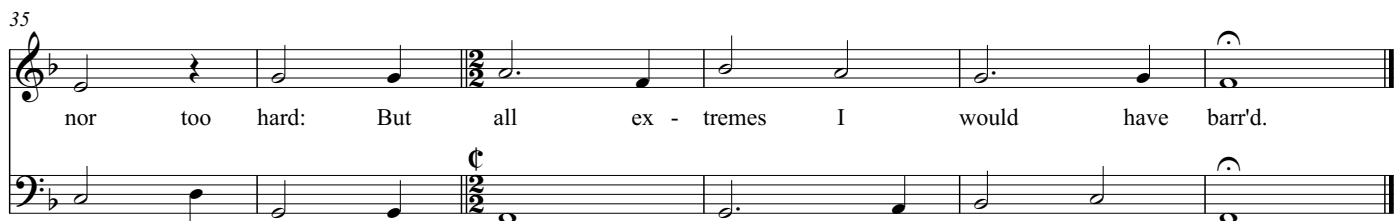

6  cov - er What would please me in my lov - er, I would have her fair and wit - ty,

12  Sav'r - ing more of court then ci - ty; A lit - tle proud, but full

17  of pi - ty; Light and a - mor - ous in her toy - ing,

23  Oft build - ing hopes, and soon des - troy - ing, Long,

29  but sweet, in her en - joy - ing; Nei - ther too ea - sy

35  nor too hard: But all ex - tremes I would have barr'd.

[CANTUS]

2.1/1

BEN JONSON

If I freely may discover (Setting 1)

ANON.

3

If I free-ly may dis - cov-er What would please me

8

in my lov - er, I would have her fair and wit - ty, Sav'r-ing more—

13

— of court then ci - ty; A lit - tle proud, — but full — of pi - ty;

19

Light and a - mor - ous in her toy - ing,

23

Oft build-ing hopes, and soon des - troy-ing, Long, — but 30 sweet, in her en - joy - ing; Nei-ther too ea - sy nor too hard: But all ex - tremes I would have barr'd.

37

[BASS]

BEN JONSON

If I freely may discover (Setting 1)

ANON.

